Description
Personality
If ever a man exemplified the concept of a pissant Lieutenant, LT Werner is that man. Always "in the rear with the gear", Werner leaves true command to the sergeants and corporals that he directs from the safety of the APC. He is jumpy, detached, and does his best to keep himself above the grunt troops. Werner isn't stupid, though, and is well-trained. He merely wishes to get this assignment over with so he can continue up the chain of command so as to reach his real goal of upper echelon ranks. Werner is hated by most of his squad, but he doesn't care. He does his best to lead them effectively, though.

Description
Personality
FSGT Rodgers is a jovial and well-liked soldier. She is generally regarded as tough but fair by all those who serve under her. Her nickname describes both her strangely sunny disposition (especially for an NCO) as well as the somewhat ironic use of the old skull and crossbones motif that adorns all of her personal equipment. "Jolly" Rodgers is a solid soldier that can be counted on to perform her duties quickly and efficiently. She is, for all intents and purposes, the de facto combat lead for Bravo. She isn't particularly close to any one soldier but is respected by all of them to some degree.

Description

Personality

CPL Long is a quiet, almost sullen individual. Laconic is a word often used to describe him, at least by those that know what laconic means. He is known for an occasional burst of insight or interaction, but otherwise keeps to himself. As a combat medic, he is near peerless. He is fearless in the face of fire and would do anything to aid a fallen comrade. Long has even be known to put his own life at risk for civilians or even members of opposition factions. His devotion to the cause of aiding others in suffering has garnered him a lot of respect and free drinks.

Description
Personality
PVT Kilpatrick is a fresh recruit out of Basic. Her not so imaginative nickname, however, does belie the fact that she is more than just a pretty face with red hair. Sharp minded with a quick (some would say "Irish" and those would likely end up with a bloodied nose) temper "Red" is a force to be reckoned with. She finds herself babied by many members of Bravo, much to her chagrin. But her razor-edged quips seems to be easing their coddling. "Red" is close to PVT Rutheford as both were in Basic together. STSGT Gopal seems to have taken Kilpatrick under her wing as well. She seems to get along well with PFCs Washburn and Jimenez.

Description
Personality
PVT Rutheford, "Twinkie" to his squad mates, is a study of opposites. Barely able to muster past the rigorous physicals that all Colonial Marines must endure, this somewhat effete man still garners a lot of respect in the very machismo focused corps. Whether this is due to his phenomenal electronic and computer skills, his intellect, his friendship with "Red", or his unnerving stare is not completely clear. What is clear that Rutheford is definitely one of "the guys" regardless of what his stature might imply. He is close the PVT Kilpatrick, having served in Basic with her. He has had a few run-ins with PFC Jimenez, however, few of them completely pleasant.

\\..WER_B40 \\..PVT Rutheford III needs to work on his interpersonal skills. He's had quite a few run-ins with PFC Jimenez (although I hesitate to blame them on PVT Rutheford III) as well as a few issues with MPs while off duty. Plus, he's got creepy eyes...

Description
Personality
LCPL Zenati is no stranger to conflict. Before joining up with the USCM, she served in an anti-terrorism force on Earth. Zenati is deeply religious, but abhors violence against innocents. She was transferred to the USCM after a bungled attempt to neutralize a terrorist cell lead to the destruction of a Mosque. Zenati is deeply remorseful for that incident, even though she had little fault in the actual events that transpired. She is a quiet and soft-spoken woman who does little to draw attention to herself, but she is very disciplined and dependable. FSGT Rodgers has a lot of respect for Zenati and often relies on her for support, more so than STSGT Gopal.

\\..WER_B40 \\..I just feel like there's something up with LCPL Zenati, but I can't put my finger on it. She's just too efficient and dependable. It's almost impossible to find fault with her. No soldier is that perfect.

Description
Personality
STSGT Gopal probably has the most combat experience of any of the members of Bravo. She served with distinction in two previous tours of duty, the first of which saw her at the battle of Baghdad Falls on MV-091 (one of the largest battles in the last 50 years). She's hardened from these experiences, almost cold. Her service has given her a lot of practical experience as a combat medic. She is a bit gruff, especially to green recruits, but this exterior covers up the fact that she really does worry about those around her. She has taken PVT Kilpatrick as a personal project, but also keeps a close watch on PVT Rutheford.

Description
Personality
PFC Jimenez is one of Bravo's "problem children". A quick temper and loose adherence to military protocol leaves PFC Jimenez often at odds with COs, XO's, and MPs on a regular basis. He is an A-grade certified APC pilot, though, even if his methods of extraction are often "unorthodox". Jimenez spends a lot of his time with PVT Washburn and they are both well known by peace officers in many ports of call around the galaxy. Jimenez has taken a dislike to PFC Rutherford, but knows that STSGT Gopal is keeping an eye on him, so does his best to torment the green recruit far from her watchful gaze.

\\..WER_B40 \\..PFC Jimenez is a poor excuse for a soldier. If I could find the proper charge to dismiss him, I would in a heartbeat. He currently has 3 outstanding reprimands during the current deployment. Recently, STSGT Gopal has to pull him off the head of security at Conrad Falls.

Description
Personality
PFC Foley is the quintessential scout. A lone wolf, cool and collected, Foley adds a quiet and unnerving presence when she is present. Her nickname, HOG, is actually an acronym for "Hand of God" which is what she has named her M-109. It's not due to any religious beliefs that she has named such, though. Foley has a slight god complex especially when behind her beloved HOG. Foley is considered creepy by all the members of Bravo. She is somewhat open with CPL Hill who spends as much time as he can with Foley picking up recon tips. Foley greatly dislikes Washburn and Jimenez, but the three seem to have an unspoken non-aggression pact.

Description
Personality
CPL Hill is a new member to Bravo, but not to the corps. He was passed over for Reconnaissance training due to his somewhat "twitchy" nature. He served in a previous tour of duty and garnered a reputation of being a bit unreliable under fire. He has been assigned to Bravo after CPL Hessman was lost in a colonial uprising. He has some large shoes to fill and has thus far failed. Hill is trying to ingratiate himself to PFC Foley to gain some better knowledge that might help him pass the entrance exam to Recon school. He dislikes STSGT Gopal as he feels she is unfairly "riding his ass".

Description

Personality
 PFC Washburn is known as "Ballsack" due to an unfortunate turn of events during Basic. He is far and away the most reckless member of Bravo. He is even-tempered, unlike his oft partner in crime PFC Jimenez, but he more than makes up for his slower fuse in raw aggression once unleashed. Washburn has quite an attitude problem that manifests as a disdain for most people as being "beneath him" in some way. He doesn't get along with anyone in Bravo save for Jimenez. As a soldier, he is dependable if uninspiring. The only problem is that he tends to rush into situations rather than wait for proper protocols.

C.O. Notes

\\..WER_B40 \\..PFC Washburn is as much of a pain in the ass as can still be a Marine. He is reckless and has a severe attitude problem. He is currently sitting on three informal and two formal reprimands for conduct during the last visit to Conrad Falls. One more and we might be looking at lowering his grade.

Description
Personality
Ferrell is a Hyperdyne Systems model 341-F synthetic human. He is a "fresh box" replacing the unit's previous synthetic "Gerald" who was lost at the same time as CPL Hessman. As such, he is currently working through his personality programming and acts much like a "blank slate" as he learns. He is programmed to act as support and science staff for Bravo company. He is efficient at his job but generally lacks most interpersonal skills. Recently some of the grunts have taken to teasing Ferrell in hopes to elicit some kid of emotional response. So far, they have failed. They have taken to calling him "Spock" after being introduced to some old 20th century films by PVT Rutheford III.
