Description
 CPT Downing is one of the most capable and talented Xos in the Colonial Marines. She is well-versed in tactics and is nothing short of a phenomenal leader. She commands the utmost respect from the men and women serving under her. She has worked hard to develop the 21st Strike Team into a well-oiled and honed machine. She expects the best from her squads and gives them the best in return. She is an excellent soldier in her own right and is often seen leading from the front lines, rather than sitting behind her APC's Tactical Command Console. Downing is known to trust her non-coms without question and considers herself to be good friends with SGT MJR Lee especially.

| Description | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| Personality | |
| SGTMJR Lee is a well decorated soldier who has served honorably in the corps for nearly four tours. She is tough as nails, disciplined, and unwavering in her devotion to the corps. Lee was hand-picked by LCPT Downing for her Strike Team after she served with distinction during the Ceti Campaign. Downing had her promoted to SGTMJR to serve as her company SGT. Lee is no-nonsense in her role as sergeant demanding the very best from those serving under her in the field. Off the field, she can be affable, but would never be mistaken for "approachable". The squad thinks of her as humorless and she and PVT Kidman butt heads often. | |

|--------------------|--|
| Personality | PVT Harris is the most recent addition to the 21st. He replaces CPL Truman, who was wounded and relieved from active duty on the 21st's prior assignment. Harris is fresh from his training and has yet to completely acclimate both to active duty as well as the tight-knit group that is the 21st. Harris is eager to prove himself a vital member, which is a personality trait that rubs many of the more experienced members of the 21st wrong. He is likeable despite his eagerness, but is sometimes prone to brooding when his squad-mates are a bit too rough on him for being the "noob". |

| C.O. Notes | |
|--|--|
| \\..DOW_B46 \\..PVT Harris is untested in combat and feels too eager to prove himself. I fear that PVT Harris may take unnecessary risks in the field, espeically to impress either SGTMJR Lee or PVT Kidman. I have asked SGT Najeeem to keep an eye on Harris in hopes to temper the green out of him. | |

C.O. Notes
 \\.DOW_B46 \\.PVT Kidman is a bit of a disruption to squad discipline, but he does keep morale high. I've asked SGTMJR Lee to take it a bit easier on him, for the sake of the esprit de corps, though. Need to work on keeping him separate from PFC Juarez and CPL Miller to avoid too much goofing off.

Description

Personality
 PVT Kidman, AKA "Sparky", is the clown of the 21st. Always quick with a joke or biting commentary, Kidman is well-known for doing his best to buck the system with humor. His impersonations are terrible, but ever present. He is fast friends with PFC Juarez as well as CPL Miller. Generally, Kidman is relaxed and confident in almost any situation, but his grace and ease are definitely most apparent during social situations. It's this charm that has allowed Kidman to dodge quite a few disciplinary actions brought against him for some of his more impertinent remarks.

| Description | |
|---|--|
| Personality | |
| PFC Juarez is the 21st's resident "college boy." She graduated cum laude in her bioengineering class, but signed up for the USCMC in order to pay off the debt she accrued during her post-graduate work. She likes working for the corps, oddly enough. She is most drawn to the feelings of comradery that is present in the corps. Being from a broken home, she has always lacked a real sense of family that she seems to have found here. Juarez is particularly close to PVT Kidman. She detests CPL Moto due to his cocky behavior. She is also drawn somewhat to PVT Harris since he's the newbie. | |

| C.O. Notes | |
|--|--|
| \\..DOW_B46 \\.PFC Juarez is smart and capable. The corps got a great deal when she signed up. On our last tour she exhibited particular bravery and was instrumental in recovering CPL Truman from the fire-zone, thus saving his life. | |

|--------------------|---|
| Personality | CPL Lewis is the closest to an actual psychopath that can get by the extensive USCMC screening process. He has a short fuse and even shorter patience. His anger, once sparked, is white hot and barely controllable by Lewis or his superiors. Known as "T-Bob" for unknown reasons, Lewis is constantly getting into scrapes and fights both when on or off duty. He has had a few official reprimands, but his combat abilities and decorations have kept the most severe punishments from befalling him. In combat, Lewis is quite the asset. He is fearless and often puts himself in harms way to protect his squad mates. Lewis is tolerated by the rest of the 21st, but they keep an eye on him. |

| C.O. Notes | |
|--|--|
| \\.\DOW_B46 \\.CPL Lewis remains a thorn in my side. When we return to Anchorpoint, I am putting him under administrative review. His last freak-out nearly cost me a fire-squad and, indirectly, resulted in the loss of CPL Truman. I am issuing a formal reprimand and summons to psychologic review. | |

| Description | |
|--|---------|
| Personality | |
| SGT Najeem is a well educated and thoughtful man. He rounds out the rough and tumble demeanor of the 21st's command staff as a pragmatic and even-tempered voice of reason. Najeem left his collegiate life only a dissertation defense away from a doctorate in Mechanical Engineering due to a student riot that killed his fiancé. His grief sent his life into a tailspin that only ended by his enlistment with the USCMC. His natural intellect and presence has made him a fine SGT in the corps. Najeem is growing short on time in the military and he greatly looks forward to returning to his life outside of the Marines. | |

When he musters out after this tour, the squad will feel the loss, but I know he looks forward to seeing his kids. | |

|--------------------|--|
| Personality | CPL Moto is a loud, brash, and arrogant member of the 21st Alpha Strike Team. His flamboyance is tolerated by those around him only because he is possibly the most talented individual in the squad. Physically, he is nothing short of a phenomenon and he quickly picks up just about anything he sets his mind to. CPL Moto is new to the Strike Team as of the prior mission, but he has already managed a promotion to PFC and seems to be fast-tracked to NCO status. SGT MJR Lee seems to have taken a shining to him. Everyone else merely tolerates him. |

| \\..DOW_B46 \\..CPL Moto is a force of nature in the squad. He butts heads often with PVT Kidman and PFC Juarez, which I think has endeared him to SGT MJR Lee. His attitude could use some readjusting, but he is an exemplary soldier. | |

|-----------------------------|--|
| Personality | CPL Miller is known as "Guru" to his squad-mates due to his deeply spiritual nature. A drop-out from seminary, Miller found his way to the USCMC as a young man, lost in the world. Two tours of duty did not strengthen Miller's knowledge of doctrine or dogma, but it has definitely increased his faith and overall spiritual outlook. Miller's faith is not militant, nor does it fall in line with any organized religion. To him, the spiritual journey is an individual one and he only wishes to facilitate others on their paths. A simple, easy-going air follows him around, like a man at peace with himself and his environs. Most squad members enjoy Miller's company. |

| \._DOW_B46 \._PFC Miller is an odd member of the group, but helpful. His quiet strength has calmed quite a few tense moments between CPL Lewis and PVT Kidman and has even helped bring LCPL Sebastian out of her shell some. I must admit I have enjoyed talking with Miller often. | |

| Personality | LCPL Sebastian is probably one of the hardest and most bitter soldiers in the squad. Years ago, on a routine patrol shrapnel from a corporate Claymore peppered her face and neck, causing severe scarring and nerve damage. This has soured Sebastian's perspective, particularly where corporate security forces are involved. She hates all corporate employees passionately and has an even more focused hatred for WY CorpSec forces. Outside of that, Sebastian is a competent medic but is generally quiet and reserved around her squad. She is particularly close to PFC Chan, and the two of them can be found arguing or joking around at all hours. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

|--|--|
| Personality | |
| PFC Chan perhaps looks to be the most hardened soldier, but her looks deceive. She is a very sociable and amicable woman. Quick-witted and funny, Chan is rarely ribald like PVT Kidman, with whom she has an ongoing mental sparring match. While friendly, Chan is physically foreboding. Her body is well-toned, a fact that she is very proud of. She spends as much time as she possible can in the gym in her off hours, usually with PFC Miller. Chan has a strange love/hate thing with LCPL Sebastian. The two enlisted on the same day (independently) and have served together since Basic. Chan is one of the few that can bring Sebastian out of her shell, even if it's for a yelling match. | |

| C.O. Notes | |
|---|--|
| \\..DOW_A40 \\..PFC Chan is a nice counter-balance for PVT Kidman and his crew. It is good that she is able to help even out LCPL Sebastian, too. Sold soldier, and overdue for a full review. She'd make a great Corporal. | |

|--|--------------------------------------|
| Personality | |
| Marcus is a Hyperdyne Systems model 341-F synthetic human. He has served with Alpha for five tours now and has been accepted as one of the unit. He is analytical and curt, as are other Synthetics, but has developed somewhat of a gallows humor, which the squad has come to enjoy. He is programmed to act as support and science staff for Alpha company, but has expanded his role somewhat into investigation and no small amount of reconaissance. Even though this generally breaks the rules of engagement for Synthetics, Cpt. Downing knows how to use all assets for the good of the squad. | |
